This is the growth or loss over the statement period taking into account fund performance, premiums, withdrawals and any charges or bonuses

Your Annual Statement is designed to help you check your policy is on track, whether that's protecting you and your loved ones, paying off your mortgage or saving for the future with investments, such as bonds. Your statement will help you see if you need to make any changes.

We can't stress enough that getting guidance or advice is essential, especially if you have complex financial arrangements.

This is a summary of your policy charges for the last year.

They reflect the cost of providing your policy benefits, such as death benefit and waiver of premium, and for looking after your policy. You'll find a breakdown of these charges in the section 'Your policy – money out' overleaf.

This figure shows your regular premiums. You'll find the total premiums for the last year shown below.

It shows the growth achieved over the past year, taking into account the premiums and charges. Some of our policies include a surrender charge, shown here on the Annual Statement. If your policy has a debt, this is added to the surrender charge. If the amount is zero, it means this charge does not apply to your policy.

Please remember that the policy and surrender values may go down as well as up.

POLICY VALUES EXPLAINED

This section shows a breakdown of the value of your policy using the total number of units and the sale price on the date of this statement.

Policy value at last statement date 31/12/2017	£49,909.34
---	------------

Fund name	Fund code	Type of units	Total units at statement date	Sale price at statement date £	Value at statement date £
CWA GLO MAN S4	GF4I	Capital	146.426	2.09	306.03
CWA GLO MAN S4	GF4P	Accumulation	4,330.445	5.37	23,254.49
CWA GLO EQU S4	GE4I	Capital	266.477	2.41	642.21
CWA GLO EQU S4	GE4P	Accumulation	4,603.234	6.20	28,540.05
Total policy value:					£52,742.78
Total surrender value:					£51,794.54

BUYING AND SELLING UNITS

The price we pay when selling investment units should you decide to transfer your policy or take your retirement benefits is referred to as the 'bid price'. Whereas the price at which we buy the investment units with your policy contributions is referred to as the 'offer price'. The bid price is always lower than the offer price. The difference between the bid and offer price is referred to as the 'bid/offer spread' – see the Money Out section below.

WHAT ARE CAPITAL UNITS?

Capital Units (sometimes call Initial Units) have a higher annual management charge than Accumulation units. Capital units are purchased in the early years (often the first 1-2 years following policy set-up or a contribution increase) as a way of spreading initial charges over the life of the policy. Often capital units are switched to accumulation units after a specified period, so the higher charges are no longer taken after that time.

WHAT ARE ACCUMULATION UNITS?

This is a type of unit which has a lower annual management charge than capital units. Your ongoing policy charges are taken from these units. They are found on all unit-linked policies. If there are also capital units in the policy, then accumulation units will be bought after the end of the capital unit period, and for all one-off lump sum payments. For more information, please refer to your policy terms and conditions.

INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE

For information about your investment fund(s), visit countrywideassured.co.uk.

If your policy comes with benefits, you'll find them detailed here.

Your policy benefits are available to you during the term of your policy. If you need to remind yourself of what each benefit provides, see pages 07 and 08 of this guide. Please bear in mind that the information covered by this guide is general. So if you need details about your particular policy, please call us using the telephone number shown at the top of the letter accompanying this guide.

This table shows how your premiums are invested in one (or more) of your investment funds. It tells you how many units were bought across the two types, capital and accumulation – see pages 07 and 08 for more information about these unit types.

The values are calculated by multiplying the number of units by the sale price. For example, the statement shows capital units in the CWA GLO MAN S4 (GF4I) as 146.426, which multiplied by the sale price of £2.09 gives a value of £306.03.

The difference between the total policy and surrender values is the surrender charge and, if relevant, an amount to cover any debt on your policy. The surrender charge only applies if you decide to surrender your policy before the maturity date. If your policy carries a debt at the time of surrendering your policy or at maturity, it will be deducted. To find out if this applies to your policy, please get in touch.

This section lists all the costs of providing your policy benefits as well as our charge for looking after your policy.

It enables you to not only understand what you're paying for but also to view your policy charges alongside the growth in value over the past year.

For further details about your policy benefits and charges, see pages 07 and 08.

Definition of key terms

Accidental death benefit

This benefit provides a lump sum payment to your family and loved ones should you die as a result of an accident.

Accumulation units

Typically accumulation units are purchased for regular premiums, from year two or three onward, and for all one-off lump sum payments. The ongoing policy charges are paid for by cashing-in units.

Administration charge

This charge covers the cost of looking after your policy until the maturity date. See your latest Annual Statement for more details.

Allocation rate

This relates to the portion of your premium that is invested in your policy.

Annual management charge

This charge covers the cost of managing the investment fund(s) and administration.

The annual management charge is calculated each day based on the value of the fund. Because we deduct the charge when pricing the fund rather than by selling units from your policy, the amount shown on your statement is an estimated charge.

Bid/offer spread

The bid price is the price we pay when selling investment units should you decide to cash-in your policy or make a claim. The offer price is the price at which we buy the investment units with your policy premiums. The bid price is always lower than the offer price. The difference between each price is referred to as the 'spread'. The bid/offer spread contributes to the cost of investing your premiums into the investment fund.

Bonus

A policy may benefit from a bonus by extra units being added at certain times during the life of your policy. To find out more about the bonus relating to your particular policy, please call us quoting your policy number.

Capital units

This type of unit tends to be used during the early years of a policy but not exclusively, for example, an increase in a policy's premium. Your premiums buy capital units and after a specified period, there is a switch from capital to accumulation units. The annual management charge tends to be higher for capital units.

Critical illness benefit

Also known as serious illness benefit, this pays a tax-free one-off payment in the event of a critical illness, such as cancer, heart attack, kidney failure and paralysis. Not all conditions are covered and the level of seriousness will form the terms and conditions of the policy from the outset.

This type of cover usually forms part of a life assurance policy and features as a 'policy benefit'. Details of the critical illness benefits covered by your policy are shown in your policy's terms and conditions. Or you can find out more by calling us and quoting your policy number.

Death benefit

This provides your family and loved ones with a cash lump sum should you die.

Enhanced allocation

If your statement refers to an 'enhanced' allocation rate, it means the amount we invest in your policy is greater than the regular premiums you make.

Guarantees

Your policy guarantee provides a guaranteed minimum fund value, which may be higher than the value shown on your statement. The guarantee may no longer be valid if any changes are made to the policy, such as an interruption or reduction in the regular premiums, or any money is taken out of the policy before the date the guarantee applies. If you want more information about the guarantee that applies to your policy, please call us.

Disability benefit

This provides an income to help you meet your financial commitments should you be unable to work as a result of an illness or accident. You can find out more by calling us and quoting your policy number.

Indexation

It's a built-in feature that helps to protect a policy from the effects of inflation and makes any necessary changes. It aims for a policy's benefits or premiums, or both, to keep up with the cost of living. The 'indexation rate' is either the Retail Price Index or a fixed rate.

Permanent total disability benefit

If you become unable to work permanently as a result of an illness or accident, this benefit provides you with a cash lump sum.

Retail Price Index (RPI)

It measures the change in the cost of a typical selection of retail goods and services and is one of the key measures of inflation.

Terminal illness benefit

This benefit provides a cash lump sum if you're diagnosed with a terminal illness which will significantly reduce your life expectancy. The amount shown on your statement is the maximum payable although the actual amount would be at the discretion of Countrywide Assured. Payment of this benefit will reduce or replace the sum assured benefit.

Waiver of premium

If you are unable to work because of an illness or accident, this benefit will pay your policy premiums for you.
